

ICPR 2026 - Call for Workshops

The ICPR 2026 Workshop Chairs invite workshop proposals for the 28th International Conference on Pattern Recognition (<https://icpr2026.org>). The main conference is to be held in Lyon, France during August 17-20, 2026, with workshops following on August 21-22. Workshops can be half-day or full-day, and workshops will take place physically. We seek Workshop proposals on timely topics on Pattern Recognition, Computer Vision, Image and Video Analysis, Biometrics, Document Analysis and Recognition, Biomedical Imaging and Bioinformatics, Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning, Human Computer Interaction, etc. Workshops are expected to provide a forum for the active exchange of ideas and experiences on a specific topic or application. Members from all segments of the ICPR community are invited to submit workshop proposals for review. Each proposal will be assessed based on its scientific merit, proposed structure, overall relevance, and how it complements the main conference.

Workshop organizers will be responsible for inviting speakers and ensuring their participation, submission, and review of papers, preparation of the program, while local arrangements, including lunch, tea and coffee, will be arranged by the ICPR main organizer.

The registration fee for workshop participation will be set by ICPR 2026 and will be the same for all workshops. ICPR 2026 main organizers reserves the right to cancel any workshop if there are too few registrations for the workshop by the early registration deadline to cover the costs of hosting the workshop. ICPR 2026 may offer accepted workshops support for travel, accommodation and workshop registration, up to a fixed amount, for one keynote/invited speaker
